ART AND MUSEUMS TOUR

inSITE97, a binational art exhibition featuring 42 projects in public spaces by more than 50 artists of the Americas, continues through November 30th. In addition to the exhibition, which features large-scale art installations at 24 sites in central San Diego and metropolitan Tijuana, inSITE97 features artist talks, lectures, and receptions that are all open to the public at no charge. Information kiosks with guides and special event calendars are located at the Children's Museum/Museo de los Niños, the Santa Fe Depot in downtown San Diego, and at the Centro Cultural Tijuana (CECUT) in downtown Tijuana. inSITE97 is a collaboration of 27 non-profit and public arts organizations in San Diego and Tijuana, coordinated by Installation and the Instituto Nacional de Bellas Artes.
