

JUST PASSING THROUGH—Mexican artist Yolanda Gutierrez's art installation for inSITE94 at the Santa Fe Depot in downtown San Diego suggests a view of life as constant movement. The piece is comprised of 45 "clouds" consisting of wire and bone suspended from the ceiling of the waiting room. The piece, one of nine art installations at the depot, is sponsored by Consejo Nacional para la Cultura y las Artes through Instituto Nacional de Bellas Artes. inSITE94, which features 74 art installations at 37 sites throughout the San Diego/Tijuana region, opened Sept. 23 and will run through Oct. 30. For information, contact Installation Gallery at 544-1452.

Photo by Philinn Scholz Rittermann